After the grand jury had been completed and sworn, District Aftorney Peyton Gordon foriefly outlined the duties of a grand jurot.
They will reconvene Wednesday of next week to begin hearings. Three of the special assistants to prosecute war fraud cases were announced late yesterday by Attorney General Daugherty. They are: Congressman C. Frank Reavis, of Nebraska, who will be in charge of quartermaster department cases. Former Congressman Roscoe McCulloch of Ohio, in charge of camp and cantonment cases. Col. Henry W. Anderson of Virginia, whose assignment was not Reavis to Resign.

Congressman Reavis will resign his seat in Congress immediately and assume his duties at the Department of the subcommittee of the Graham investigating committee dealing estonment contracts. The Phillips-Stevens lumber case is one of the more important ones to come under
